

Band Expectations and Standards

As a member of the Columbia University Marching Band, I agree to create and maintain an environment for open dialogue regarding sexual assault, discrimination, and harassment. I recognize that sexual violence and harassment often occur within groups of friends and family that I know and trust.

As a member of the Columbia University Marching Band, I pledge to remain aware of my surroundings and identify problematic behavior and intervene in non-consensual sexual interactions or instances of harassment that I witness. This can be done directly—to the best of my ability—or by telling a Bored member. I resolve to be watchful, concerned and caring, while stepping up and checking in with members of our group.

As a member of the Columbia University Marching Band, I will neither condone nor commit acts of violence, and I understand that the Bored upholds a zero-tolerance policy for instances of non-consensual sexual activity.

I have been provided with and have read through the Bored Procedure for Supporting Members and Maintaining a Safe Environment.

As a group of friends and peers, we pledge to support each other and maintain a positive and respectful environment for all members of our organization.

I, _____, have read, understand, and agree to abide by the above Band expectations and standards.